Policies related to pledge adjustments at B'nai Israel are listed below:

- a) Any member may request an adjustment to the standard membership pledge. Such requests are handled with discretion.
- b) Congregation B'nai Israel expects all members—even those receiving special consideration—to contribute an appropriate amount toward support of the congregation.
- c) Adjustments are for a one-year period, based on the temple's fiscal year.
- d) Membership in the congregation will not be denied simply because an individual is unable to meet dues, fees, or other financial demands.
- e) Scholarships for religious school, summer camp, etc., if needed, can be applied for separately.
- f) To receive an adjustment in membership commitment, complete and return this form to the temple office, along with your Membership Pledge Form.

Please briefly describe why you are requesting an adjustment to your 2011-12 membership pledge.

Every member of the temple, including those who receive special consideration, are expected to contribute at some level to support the congregation. Please indicate the annual amount you are able to donate. You may make your contribution in monthly or quarterly payments. This will help us budget more effectively.

I certify that the information above is true to the best of my ability. If my situation changes, I will contact the Temple Administrator and will adjust my contribution accordingly.
