

Julie Steinberg

Julie Steinberg has been enriching B'nai Israel's education programs and worship services for more than 16 years. In addition to teaching music and leading religious school services, Julie has taught Torah and Haftarah trope to our B'nai Mitzvah students and adult learners.

Julie began her career in music as a young girl in the Peninsula Temple Sholom Youth Choir in Burlingame, where she also sang for many years in a quartet with Temple Sholom's Cantor Barry Reich. She studied music at the San Francisco Conservatory of Music and Indiana University. Prior to his untimely passing, Julie also had the privilege of studying chazzanut with Chazzan Carl Naluai, the long time cantor at B'nai Israel.

Julie holds a Masters degree in Social Work and served as a social worker for Jewish Family Services in Sacramento, working with seniors and families in the Sacramento region. She is married to Darrell Steinberg and is the proud mother of Jordana and Ari.
