

Mandy Greene has been a Temple Administrator since 1994. He holds a Master of Arts in Public Administration from the University of Northern Colorado and a Master of Arts in Jewish Communal Service / Synagogue Management from Hebrew Union College (HUC-JIR). He also holds professional certification as a Fellow in Temple Administration. Mandy's wife, Marcia, is a Jewish educator and is currently Director of Education at Temple Or Rishon in Orangevale, CA. They have two children – their daughter, Heather, is a social worker in Portland, Oregon, and their son, James, is Rabbi of Temple Beth Sholom in Salem, Oregon.