

Bio for Mandy Greene
Administrator

Mandy Greene became our administrator in 2003, but served as a Jewish Lay Leader or High Holy Days Cantor & Sheliach Tzibur at a number of locations during a 21-year Air Force career, including at the United States Air Force Academy for two years. Upon retiring from the Air Force, Mandy studied Jewish Communal Service/Synagogue Management at Hebrew Union College (HUC-JIR), and has been a Temple Administrator since his graduation in 1994. In addition to a Master of Arts in Synagogue Management, he holds a Master of Arts in Public Administration from the University of Northern Colorado, as well as professional certification as a Fellow in Temple Administration. He also earned an undergraduate teaching degree from the University of Minnesota. Mandy's wife, Marcia, is a Jewish educator and is the Director of Education at Temple Or Rishon in Orangevale, CA. They have two children - their daughter, Heather, is an emergency room social worker in Portland, OR, and their son, James, is a Rabbi, serving as the Director of the Center for Jewish Life and Learning at the Silicon Valley JCC in Los Gatos, CA.
