

phi-lan-thro-pist noun \fə-
'lan(t)-thrə-pist\ə Person who performs charitable or benevolent actions

- Be a founding member of this region's first Jewish youth philanthropy board of directors!
- Learn what it means to be a youth philanthropist from a Jewish perspective
- Learn how to raise money for the fund--and do it!
- Understand our community better and the challenges it faces
- Work with your peers from B'nai Israel and other temples, to decide what agencies should receive donations from the Fund
- Learn valuable leadership skills including evaluating funding proposals and serving on a board of directors run by teens.
- Each student must contribute at least $25 to the Philanthropy Fund

Be a Philanthropist and Help Change the World

When: Kick off meeting with students and parents on Feb 12th 1-4. Student meetings on Thursdays from 6:15-8:30pm at Temple Bnai Israel

Who: All local Jewish 9-12th grade students* who belong to local congregations

Cost: Free to Keshet Connections Enrolled students
Other B'nai Israel teens (9th-12th grade)* cost is $50
Non B'nai Israel teens cost is $60

To register contact: Daniela Korman at Daniela.korman@gmail.com
Class will be limited to 15 students--so register now!

*mature 8th grade students accepted with special approval